Yong Park Appointed Controller of Moore Industries

NORTH HILLS, CA—Moore Industries appointed Yong Park to the position of Controller. Park brings nineteen years of progressively responsible experience within the manufacturing, construction, and international trading industries. Most recently, Park held the title of Controller with Plastic Services & Products, Inc., where he successfully completed a merger with a competitor company as well as two outside acquisitions.

“As Moore Industries continues to expand worldwide, Yong’s experience in international trading will be a great benefit to the company,” says Nicholas Moore, Director of Strategic Planning at Moore Industries.

In addition to his vast knowledge of accounting best practices, Park has a BA in Business Administration from Sogang University in Seoul, Korea, and an MBA with a concentration in Accounting and Finance from California State University, Northridge.
